Description	Heinrich Wüest (1741-1821) painted landscapes in single pictures and entire series as room decorations. He was the most professional painter of his generation in Zurich and taught Heinrich Freudweiler, Ludwig Hess and Heinrich Werdmüller, among others, who painted portraits of him with his pupils (inv. 385).
Provenance	The digitisation of the inventory of the Kunsthau is an ongoing work in progress. Due to the time-consuming nature of comprehensive scientific research on each individual artwork, we have decided to disclose some works also without provenance information to the public. The progression of provenance research will be continuously updated online. If you have any questions or comments, please contact us at
